

Privacy Policy

Privacy is a priority to the Recreation Council of Greater St. Louis. We are committed to preserving the privacy of all our visitors to our website. To better protect your privacy, we provide this statement explaining our online information practices, and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used.

What our Privacy Policy Covers

This Privacy Policy covers any personal information that the Recreation Council obtains from you through your use of our website. This policy does not cover information the Recreation Council obtains from you through sources other than this website. This policy also does not cover the practices of companies or organizations that the Recreation Council does not own or control, or the actions of people that Recreation Council does not employ or manage.

Our Privacy Policy may change time to time as needed and deemed appropriate. We invite you to check back periodically to see if we have made any changes. By using this website, you agree to the terms of our Privacy Policy.

Collection and Usage of Personal Information

The Recreation Council does track the number of visitors to our website but we do not collect individual information (email addresses, personal information, etc.) unless the visitor provides us this information elsewhere on our website and only by the expressed permission of the website visitor. You can visit our site without telling us who you are or revealing any personally identifiable information about yourself. When a visitor supplies personal information to make a donation and/or provide a mailing address, email address and/or other identifiable information to receive our newsletters, news updates and such, that information is not sold nor made publicly available to others.

The Recreation Council may, however, share your information with third parties in connection with providing you with the services you request, maintenance and operation of our site, or as may be legally required.

Newsletters, Emails & Other Publications: The Recreation Council sends emails, newsletters, guides and other resources to users upon request. The Recreation Council also may use non-identifying and aggregate information to better design our web site and for other business purposes.

The Recreation Council does use a third party vendor for printing and mailing services relating to distribution of our newsletters and/or other Recreation Council publications.

You can telephone, write or email the Recreation Council to review or change information previously provided, or to discontinue receiving Recreation Council newsletters, emails and other publications. To protect your privacy and security, we will take reasonable steps to verify your identity before granting access or making corrections.

Children Under 13

The Recreation Council's website is not intended for use of unsupervised children under the age of 13. The Recreation Council does not solicit or collect personal information directly from children under the age of 13 through its website. If you are a child under the age of 13, please get the permission of a parent or guardian before using this website and/or submitting any personal information.

Non-Discrimination

It is the policy of the Recreation Council of Greater St Louis not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age or disability in admission and access to, or treatment or employment in its programs or activities, as required by section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended, Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, as amended, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, as amended, and their implementing regulations.

No Warranties and Limitation of Liability

The information provided by the Recreation Council and contained in this Website is for general information purposes only. The information is provided by the Recreation Council and while we attempt to keep the information up to date and correct, we make no representations or warranties of any kind, express or implied, about the completeness, accuracy, reliability, suitability or availability with respect to the Website or the information, products, services, or related graphics contained on the Website for any purpose. Any reliance you place on such information is therefore strictly at your own risk.

Every effort is made to keep the Website up and running smoothly. The Recreation Council will not be liable for the Website being unavailable due to technical issues beyond our control. The Recreation Council uses security measures that protect against the loss, misuse or alteration of the information under our control. We use a secure server and transmit sensitive information using the secure socket layer (SSL) encryption protocol. All systems are protected by a firewall and secure restricted access for your protection.

Links to Third Party Sites

The Recreation Council provides links to and accepts links from external websites of other parties. Those websites may contain links to external sites with their own data collection and privacy policies. Please note that when you click on one of these links, you are entering another site. We encourage you to read the privacy statements of these linked sites as their privacy policy may differ from ours. The Recreation Council is not responsible or liable for information submitted to these sites or use of that information. The inclusion of any link on this website does not imply any association or relationship between the Recreation Council and the person/organization/business sponsoring the linked site and does not constitute or imply any endorsement, approval or sponsorship of the linked site by the Recreation Council. Furthermore, the Recreation Council will not assume any responsibility for the content, accuracy or completeness of material presented directly or indirectly in linked sites.
