

Friend,

This morning I was proud to join hundreds of disability advocates in Columbia to announce that the MO ABLE program will officially launch on Monday, April 24th!

Starting that day, Missourians with disabilities will be able to sign up for tax-advantaged savings accounts without having to risk losing federal benefits. With these accounts, individuals in the disability community will be able to save money for things like education, medical expenses, housing, and much more.

Once the program is up and running, I'll need all the help I can get to spread the word about this program to the more than 800,000 Missouri residents living with a disability. You can help us do just that by following the program on social media and sharing our updates with your friends and family!

Eric Schmitt
